

IES Abroad Chile – Spring 2015

While abroad, students continue to pay their Case tuition rather than the tuition at their new institution. In addition there are several expenses students' financial aid can potentially help to fund. These are listed in the table below.

	Amount	Notes
Housing	$3,010	Homestay, which will account for 21 meals per week
Estimated Cost for Meals	N/A	Included in cost of Homestay
Books	$200
Passport	$135
Airfare	$1,250	Roundtrip to Santiago
Local Transportation	$760
Visa	$160
Miscellaneous Spending	$1,550	Can include more expensive personal purchases such as clothes, haircuts, soap, shampoo, toiletries, cleaning supplies, etc.
Health Insurance	$200
Total	$7,265

All of these costs are considered academic in nature and can therefore be considered for coverage from financial aid. Other expenses that may receive aid include immunizations and additional passport and visa fees for students that are not US citizens.

Please note that personal expenses such as travel, shopping, and going out to eat will not be covered, and should therefore be planned for accordingly.
