

IES Brazil – Spring 2015

While abroad, students continue to pay their Case tuition rather than the tuition at their new institution. In addition there are several expenses students' financial aid can potentially help to fund. These are listed in the table below.

| | Amount | Notes |
|--------------------------|----------|---|
| Housing | $4,100 | Homestay or Residence Hall, this fee accounts for nine meals per week. |
| Estimated Cost for Meals | $2,200 | Additional meals |
| Books | $200 | |
| Passport | $135 | |
| Airfare | $1,250 | Roundtrip to Rio de Janeiro |
| Local Transportation | $425 | |
| Visa | $160 | |
| Miscellaneous Spending | $1,800 | Can include more expensive personal purchases such as clothes, haircuts, soap, shampoo, toiletries, cleaning supplies, etc. |
| Health Insurance | $200 | |
| Total | $10,470 | |

All of these costs are considered academic in nature and can therefore be considered for coverage from financial aid. Other expenses that may receive aid include immunizations and additional passport and visa fees for students that are not US citizens.

Please note that personal expenses such as travel, shopping, and going out to eat will not be covered, and should therefore be planned for accordingly.
