

Danish Institute for Study Abroad – Spring 2014

While abroad, students continue to pay their Case tuition rather than the tuition at their new institution. In addition there are several expenses students' financial aid can potentially help to fund. These are listed in the table below.

	Amount	Notes
Housing	$5,395	Homestay accounts for all meals. This does not include the mandatory, non-refundable $500 deposit.
Estimated Cost for Meals	$1,200	For meals not provided by host family. This amount will vary depending on the kind of housing the student chooses (Homestay, Kollegium, Folkehøjskole, etc.)
Books	N/A	Included in Comprehensive Tuition Fee
Passport	$135
Airfare	$1,065	Roundtrip to Copenhagen
Local Transportation	N/A	Included in Comprehensive Housing & Student Affairs Fee
Visa	N/A	Included in Comprehensive Housing & Student Affairs Fee
Miscellaneous Spending	$2,750	Can include more expensive personal purchases such as clothes, haircuts, soap, shampoo, toiletries, cleaning supplies, etc.
Residence Permit	$300
Total	$10,845

All of these costs are considered academic in nature and can therefore be considered for coverage from financial aid. Other expenses that may receive aid include immunizations and additional passport and visa fees for students that are not US citizens.

Please note that personal expenses such as travel, shopping, and going out to eat will not be covered, and should therefore be planned for accordingly.
