

Technion – Israel Institute of Technology

Center for International Academic Relations

The Technion is Israel's premier science and technology university, located in Haifa, on the north shore of the Mediterranean sea.

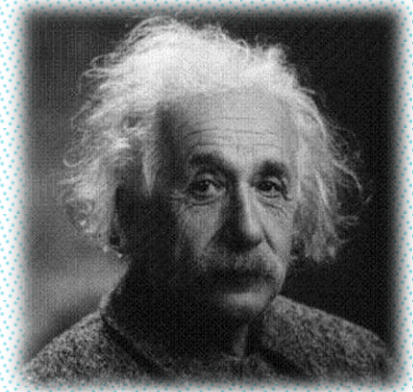

The Technion

Established in 1924
over 80 years of academic excellence

“The Technion is of prime importance to the development of industries” David Ben-Gurion

Albert Einstein,
President of the first Technion
Society

Technion Today

- 18 Academic Departments
Engineering, Natural Sciences, Medicine, Architecture
Science Education, Humanities, Behavioral Sciences
- 42 Research Centers
- 53 Undergraduate Programs
- 67 Graduate Programs
- 84,000 Awarded Degrees
- 540 Faculty Members
- 360 Researchers on external research grants
- 300 Wooded acres campus
- 86 Buildings
- 4060 Dormitory beds

The Technion Campus

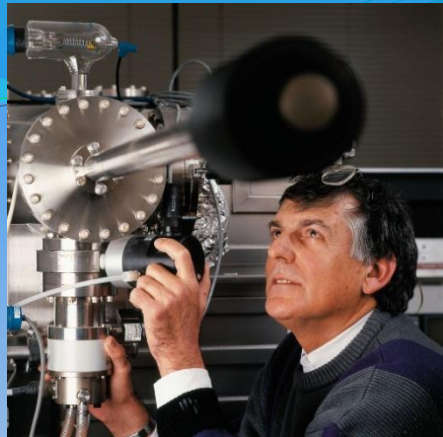

The Technion's 300-acre campus of advanced research and learning offers a wide range of faculties and extracurricular facilities.

The Technion is ranked among the world's top 25 technological universities.

Students worldwide are invited to study and conduct research at the Technion's campus and labs.

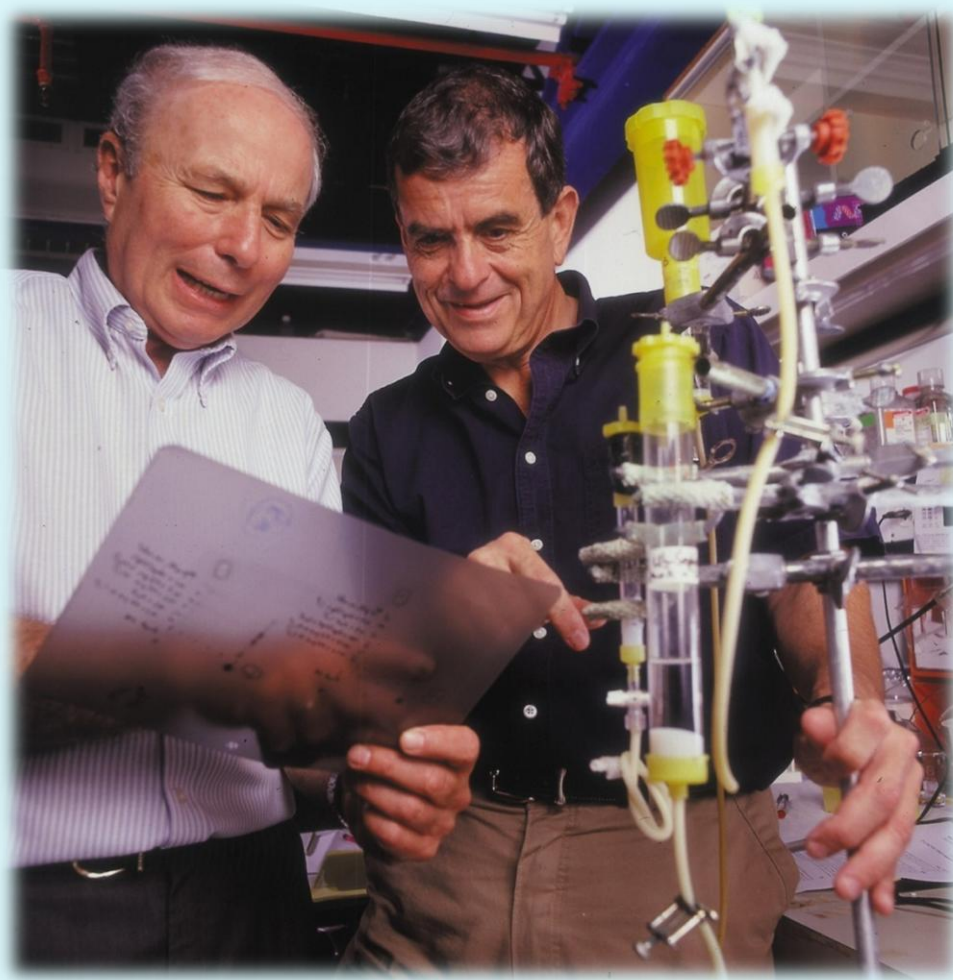

הטכניון
מכון טכנולוגי
לישראל

Technion
Israel Institute
of Technology

Technion Impact

International Companies Rely on Technion Graduates

- Amdocs
- Applied Materials
- Cisco Systems
- Checkpoint
- Ericsson
- GE
- Google
- HP
- IBM
- Intel
- Microsoft
- Motorola
- Phillips
- Qualcomm
- Siemens
- SAP
- Yahoo
- Zoran

Nobel Prize Laureates:
Prof. Avram Hershko and Prof. Aaron Ciechanover
2004

Nobel Prize Laureate: Prof. Dan Schetman - 2011

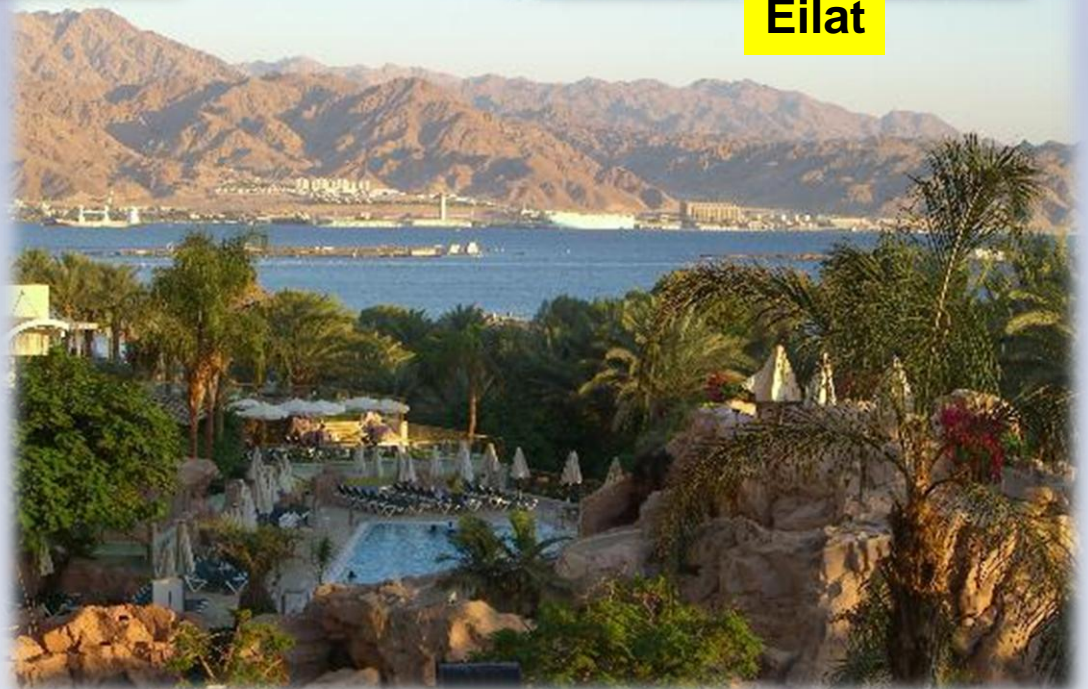

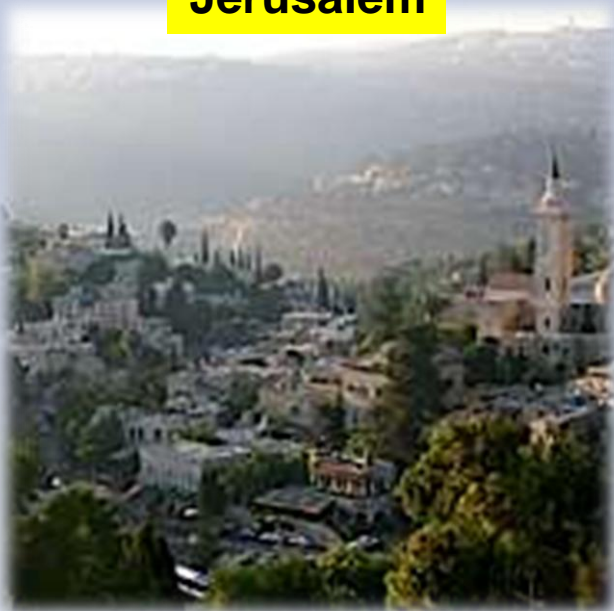

Travelling - cities and sites in Israel

Jerusalem

Eilat

Travel in Israel

The Mediterranean Sea Tel Aviv

The Dead Sea

The Sea of Galilee - Kinneret

We are here to help!

Orna – studex@technion.ac.il

Dina – bdkatz@technion.ac.il

Noa – Visas@technion.ac.il

ALL International Visitors, dorms and payments

For Collaboration agreements

For visa issues

Looking forward to seeing you on our campus.....

Website: <http://ciar.technion.ac.il/>